Selfhood like a drop of rain,

It is unbecoming of a shell that it cannot turn the drop into a pearl;

Eye vision is not always heartful.
First overpower the world;
Then refuse to enjoy its pleasures.
The possessor of a sound heart puts to test his power, by entering into big adventure.
Possibilities of the men of action manifest through their love of the difficult

O noble soul! Do you know what it is to live?
It is to take your share of the Beauty of God.

To a timid heart a deer is a tiger;

One, try your best to deeply analyse the reality of the universe and equip yourself with maximum knowledge of the laws of nature. Two, overpower the elements of the cosmos and utilise them for fulfilling your highly ambitious aims. Three, go beyond this cosmos, migrate into and surf the realm of spirituality and imbibe unto yourself the glory of selflessness where personal worldly possessions begin becoming insignificant.

Muslim leaders upset with PM’s cold response

Rakhi Chakrabarty | TNN

New Delhi: Muslim leaders who met Prime Minister Manmohan Singh on Saturday expressed deep sympathy for the Muslims, the PM only assured us that he would bring up the riots at the upcoming National Integration Council meeting,” said Zakat Foundation of India president Syed Zafar Mahmoud. He said the riots were a fallout of a clash between human interests and political interests.

Muslim leaders told the PM that Muslims were being killed in the political fight for power between the UPA and NDA. “And, the UPA is doing nothing to save Muslims. Instead, the gov-
Muslim leaders meet Prime Minister

NEW DELHI: In a rare display of unity, 15 prominent Muslim leaders from different groups met Prime Minister Manmohan Singh on Monday to discuss Muzaffarnagar communal riots.

They expressed their anger with the UPA Government for not tackling the “errant” Uttar Pradesh Government over the violence, which has left around 35 dead and thousands homeless.

The leaders said they were devastated by the “complete failure” of both the U.P. and Central Governments in preventing the violence in Muzaffarnagar.

They said the riots were a “result of saffron designs at polarisation, just ahead of General Elections”.

The meeting was initiated by Milli Gazette editor Zafarul Islam Khan and Jamia-tul Ulema Hind leader Mahmood Madani. The delegation told the Prime Minister that the community is the loser in the electoral battle between the UPA and the NDA.

President of Zakat Foundation of India Syed Zafar Mahmood said the current situation was covered by Articles 355, 356 and 365 of the Constitution, which enable the Centre to take charge of the situation and provide military protection for displaced families returning to their villages.

Recommendations

While talking about affirmative action, Dr. Mahmood argued that the Centre had given no thought to a vital recommendation of the Sachar Committee regarding removing the anomaly of reserving Muslim-dominated constituencies for Schedule Caste in constituencies with negligible SC presence.

The delegation talked about the need to reintroduce the communal violence bill.

They demanded that the government try to pass the proposed legislation that it had initially spearheaded but later abandoned.

They asked the Prime Minister to ensure relief measures, rehabilitation and compensation for thousands of people currently living in make-shift camps.

They said the legal process to punish the perpetrators of the violence should start with immediate registration of FIRs.

The leaders from the minority community told the Prime Minister that the Centre must ensure that bias or discrimination finds no room in the relief, rehabilitation and compensation process.

Dr. Mahmood told The Hindu that the Prime Minister expressed his deep sympathy with the minority community and talked of the upcoming meeting of the National Integration Council.
President of Zakat Foundation of India Syed Zafar Mahmood said to the Prime Minister:

The current situation is covered by Articles 355, 356 and 365 of the Constitution, which enable the Centre to take charge of the situation & provide military protection for displaced families returning to their villages.

On a day when the PM gave the go-ahead for the 7th pay commission, Muslim leaders demanded a Delimitation Commission, as suggested by the Sachar Committee, to take a relook at assembly constituencies with high Muslim population reserved for SC candidates. The Sachar Committee had noted that the matter was in the purview of the Delimitation Commission. On September 16, when Muslim leaders met the PM about the communal violence in Muzaffarnagar, Zakat Foundation of India’s president Syed Zafar Mahmood had reminded Manmohan Singh about the anomaly. “The PM told us that in view of the upcoming election how can a delimitation commission be appointed now?” said Mahmood.

While it was implemented by BJP Governments in Chhatisgarh & Jharkhand

If they so wish, they can alter the parameters of the world,
The human beings are blessed with correct perception,
unfailing intelligence and long lasting energy.

Subject your heart to quality control:
Gift it back to God

O Lord! You gave me a heart of crude copper.
With my love for Your creatures,
I am trying to convert it into gold.
So that, when I meet You tomorrow,
on the Day of Judgement,
I can present it to You as a gift.
Dua (Salutation) by Hzt Umar (R):

Allahumma j'alam 'amali kullahoo swaliHan
waj'alhu kullahoo biwajhiika khaaliSan wa laa taj'al lighairika feehi shaiaa.

O Lord !
Make all my actions noble and direct all of these exclusively towards Your pleasure
